TALLAHASSEE: A gunman killed two people and wounded five others at a yoga studio in Florida's capital before killing himself on Friday evening, officials said. Tallahassee Police Chief Michael DeLeo told reporters the man shot six people and pistol-whipped another after walking into the studio, which is part of a small Tallahassee shopping centre. The suspect then fatally shot himself, DeLeo said. Early on Saturday, the Tallahassee Police Dept identified the shooter as Scott Paul Beierle, 40.

Fearing for life, Asia Bibi's lawyer flees Pak

Requests govt to protect family; early hearing of review plea sought

Islamabad

The lawyer of Asia Bibi fled Pakistan early on Saturday after fearing for his life amid countrywide protests by hundreds of radical Islamist hardliners against the acquittal of the Christian woman who was sentenced to death for committing blasphemy, media reports said. Bibi, a 47-year-old mother of four, was convicted in 2010 after being accused of insulting Islam in a row with her neighbours. She always maintained her innocence, but has spent most of the past eight years in solitary confinement.

Her lawyer Saiful Malook claimed he was facing life threats from sections of lawyers and it was difficult

Meanwhile, the complainant in the case, Qari Muhammad Saalam, has requested the Supreme Court for the early hearing of a review petition against its October 31 order acquitting Bibi, who was booked for blasphemy in 2009. Saalam said Bibi is planning to leave the country and an application has already been filed to place her name on the Exit Control List (ECL).

In case this review petition is not fixed, he said, the application/petition shall suffer an irreparable loss and injury.

It is learnt the review petition, filed in the SC Lahore registry, has been transferred to the Islamabad registry where all judges are sitting.

Illegal immigration costs US taxpayers $100 bn/yr: Trump

AGENCIES
Washington

Illegal immigration costs American taxpayers $100 billion a year, President Trump said as he slammed the Democratic party for advocating an open border policy facilitating an easy entry of illegal immigrants into the US. His comments came amid a row over a caravan of 5,000 to 7,000 people mostly from Latin American countries, El Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala, currently at the southern US border along Mexico to enter America.

Trump said soldiers deployed to stop the illegal immigrants from entering the US would not open fire, but would arrest them if they threw stones at the troops.

"Illegal immigration costs American taxpayers more than $100 billion every single year; more than three times the entire state budget of Indiana. We need to use our

—AFP precious resources to help our fellow Americans who respect our laws, not illegal caravans who break into our borders and break our laws," Trump said in Indiana.

Democrat immigration policies not only drain US treasury, but they threaten communities, he alleged.

Meanwhile, former US president Barack Obama has termed as "political stunt" his successor Trump's move of sending troops to the Mexican border where thousands of "impoverished refugees" are waiting to enter America, saying this is not patriotism. "In 2018 suddenly, they are telling you the biggest threat to America is some impoverished refugees a thousand miles away on foot, got their babies with them. Broke, got no money. This is terrible. And that's not enough just to lie about it," Obama said at an election rally in Georgia.

Diver dies in search of Indonesia jet crash dead

JAKARTA: An Indonesian diver died while recovering body parts from the ill-fated Lion Air plane which crashed into the sea killing 189 people, an official said on Saturday.

Syachrul Anto, 48, who died on Friday, was part of the team searching for body parts and debris from the jet in the Java Sea. "He was a volunteer with the Search and Rescue Agency," Isswarto, commander of the Indonesian navy's search and rescue division, said.

Meanwhile, divers searching for wreckage belonging to Lion Air flight have found the fuselage of the crashed airliner and said they heard a signal from its missing cockpit voice recorder, he said. The divers had detected a characteristic "ping" sound from the second black box.

GLOBE TROTTING

Australian nun leaves Philippines

MANILA: An Australian nun who angered President Rodrigo Duterte departed the Philippines on Saturday following a lengthy legal fight against the government's efforts to expel her. Sister Patricia Fox was escorted to the airport by about 200 human rights activists who praised her years of service in the impoverished Southeast Asian nation and condemned the administration for forcing her to leave.

Sri Lanka: Tamil party to back no-trust

COLOMBO: Sri Lanka's main Tamil party, Tamil National Alliance, said it will support a no-trust motion against new PM Mahinda Rajapaksa, amid mounting pressure on President Maithripala Sirisena to let the suspended Parliament hold a vote to end the political crisis.

Iran opens production of fighter jet

TEHRAN: State TV says Iran has inaugurated the production line of its domestically produced fighter jet a day after the Trump administration announced the reimposition of remaining US sanctions on Tehran to ramp up economic pressure on the Islamic Republic. Defence Minister Gen Amir Hatami said the production line highlights the capabilities of Iranian experts despite "sanctions by enemies."

Rights: China fails to execute UN advice

GENEVA: Human rights activists, academicians and politicians have raised serious concerns over Beijing's failure to protect human rights of indigenous and minority communities in the country, especially Xinjiang and Tibet. Department of Information and International and Relations (DIIR) and the office of Tibet Geneva have jointly organised a Forum under the title "Making China Accountable under UN Human Rights Mechanism" at the Centre International de Conférences, Geneva on Friday.

7-yr-old girl, face of Yemen crisis dies

SANAA: Amal Hussein, a 7-year-old Yemeni girl, whose photograph in the New York Times last week became a symbol of Yemen's humanitarian conflict has passed away. Her family said that she died due to acute malnutrition. The image, taken by Pulitzer Prize-winning photojournalist Tyler Hicks, showed the undernourished girl lying on a bed at a mobile UNICEF clinic in Yemen's Aslam town on October 18, CNN reported.

Myanmar bypoll litmus test for Suu Kyi

YANGON: Myanmar voters cast their ballots in a small but key by-election Saturday, a rare local test of support for embattled leader Aung San Suu Kyi's party more than halfway through her time in office. Suu Kyi and the National League for Democracy swept to power in 2015 in a landslide victory ending decades of military rule.

Antarctic: Ocean sanctuary blocked

SYDNEY: A plan to create the world's largest marine sanctuary in Antarctic waters was shot down when a key conservation summit failed to reach a consensus, with environmentalists on Saturday decrying a lack of scientific foresight. Member states of the organisation tasked with overseeing the sustainable exploitation of the Southern Ocean failed at an annual meeting Friday to agree over the a 1.8 million square kilometre maritime protection zone.

Twitter deleted thousands of A/Cs

WASHINGTON: Twitter has deleted thousands of automated accounts, many posing as Democrats, posting tweets encouraging US voters to sit out Tuesday's crucial midterm polls, said the media.

Italy: Fierce winds raze forests, kill 20

ROME: Fierce winds and rains have killed at least 20 in Italy this week and razed thousands of hectares of forest in the country's devastated north, officials said. An 87-year-old woman and a 62-year-old German tourist were killed on Friday after being struck by lightning in Sardinia. It brings to 20 the number of people killed by bad weather in Italy since the start of the week.

2nd 'bomb' to US billionaire intercepted

SAN FRANCISCO: The FBI has confirmed a second suspicious package addressed to California billionaire Tom Steyer has been intercepted at a post office. It said on Friday the parcel was discovered at a postal sorting facility in Burlingame city in San Mateo County on Thursday night and has been rendered safe, reports Xinhua.

Tsunamis account for $280bn in economic losses over 20 yrs

GENEVA: The UN Office for Disaster Risk Reduction has sought attention to the significant loss of life and economic losses worth $280 billion associated with tsunamis, notably for countries bordering the Indian and Pacific Oceans, over the last twenty years.

A review of available data from tsunami events puts these losses at 251,770 deaths and $280 billion out of recorded economic losses for earthquakes and tsunamis of $661.5 billion (1998-2017).

The figures came on Friday from the emergency events database maintained by the Centre for Research on the Epidemiology of Disasters, based at the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium.

The UN Secretary-General's Special Representative for Disaster Risk Reduction, Mami Mizutori, said: "November 5 is World Tsunami Awareness Day and it is an occasion to promote greater understanding of tsunami risk to avoid future loss of life."

Turkey: Highest level of Saudi govt ordered writer's slaying

AGENCIES / Ankara

The order to kill Saudi journalist Jamal Khashoggi came from the highest level of the Saudi government, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said on Friday, adding the international community had the responsibility to "reveal the puppet masters" behind the slaying.

In an op-ed in The Washington Post, Erdogan said he did not believe Saudi King Salman had ordered the killing of Khashoggi at the Saudi Consulate on October 2. He said Turkey's close ties to Saudi Arabia did not mean Turkey could turn a blind eye to the killing of the journalist.

"We know that the order to kill Khashoggi came from the highest levels of the Saudi government," Erdogan said. Erdogan wrote: "As responsible members of the international community, we must reveal the identities of the puppet masters behind Khashoggi's killing and discover those in whom Saudi officials — still trying to cover up the murder — have placed their trust."

Meanwhile in Bulgaria, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu called Khashoggi's slaying a horrendous act that "should be duly dealt with" in a way that doesn't undermine Saudi Arabia's stability.

Netanyahu said that Iran is a bigger threat than Saudi Arabia and those who want to punish the Middle East kingdom need to bear that in mind.

Ex-ISI chief's son survives attempt on life

ISLAMABAD: Abdullah Gul, the son of former Inter-Services Intelligence Director General (ISI DG) General Hamid Gul escaped an attempt on life at the Islamabad Expressway on Friday evening. Abdullah claimed armed assailants intercepted and fired shots at his vehicle. However, he escaped unhurt in the attack, The Dawn reported.

Abdullah added his name was on the threat list and the same was informed by various government departments. The assassination bid comes after former Pak senator and Jamiat Ulema Islam-Sami chief Maulana Samiul Haq was killed in Rawalpindi. Thousands attended his burial on Saturday.

North Korea threatens to resume N-development

SEOUL: North Korea has warned it could revive a state policy aimed at strengthening its nuclear arsenal if the US does not lift economic sanctions against the country. The Foreign Ministry statement on Friday evening came amid a sense of unease between Washington and Seoul over the use of sanctions and pressure to get the North to relinquish its nuclear programme.

It said North Korea could bring back its "pyongjin" policy of simultaneously advancing its nuclear force and economic development if the US doesn't change its stance. The North came short of threatening to abandon the ongoing nuclear negotiations with the US.

But it accused Washington of derailing commitments made by North Korean leader Kim Jong Un and President Trump at their June summit in Singapore to work toward a nuclear-free Korean Peninsula, without describing how and when it would occur.

In an interview with Fox News' Sean Hannity on Friday, US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo said he plans to talk next week with his North Korean counterpart, apparently referring to senior North Korean official Kim Yong Chol. He did not provide the location and date for the meet, likely to be focussed on persuading North to take firmer steps toward denuclearisation and setting up a second summit between Trump and Kim. —Agencies

PIO man nabbed for H1B visa fraud in Silicon Valley

WASHINGTON: A 46-year-old Indian-American has been arrested and charged in California on charges of H-1B visa fraud.

Kishore Kumar Kavuru was arrested on Friday morning and produced before the US Magistrate Judge Susan van Keulen. He was later released on bond. Kavuru has been charged with 10 counts of visa fraud and as many counts of mail fraud in connection with a scheme to maintain a pool of foreign workers for the clients of his consulting companies.

The accused faces 10 years in jail and a fine of $250,000 for each count of visa fraud and up to 20 years of jail for each count of mail fraud.

Since 2007, Kavuru was the owner and CEO of four consulting firms. He is accused of submitting fraudulent documents to both the depts of Labour and Homeland Security, containing details of bogus work projects awaiting the foreign workers.

Because many applications were approved, the Indian-American had a pool of unemployed H-1B beneficiaries that were immediately available for legitimate work projects, giving him a competitive advantage over other staffing firms that followed the sometimes-lengthy visa-application process, federal prosecutors said. —Agencies

NRI pair held on suspicion of keeping 'slave' in UK shed

LONDON: An Indian-origin couple from southern England have been arrested on modern-day slavery charges after they were accused of keeping a Polish builder in their garden shed for four years. Palvinder and Pritpal Binning, both in their mid-50s, were arrested by the UK's Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority (GLAA) earlier this week after a raid on their home in Chilworth, near Southampton on southern coast of England.

GLAA officers said they acted after a frail Polish man told staff at a walk-in healthcare centre in Southampton that he had been forced to work in exchange for food. The Binnings have since been released under investigation, pending further enquiries. GLAA, the workers' watchdog, said its officers also searched the property and seized evidence which may prove critical to the probe.

"Following the two arrests we made, our probe is ongoing as we examine and assess the evidence we collected from the property," said GLAA Senior IO Tony Byrne. —Agencies

China vows 'necessary support' to cash-strapped Pak; sign 16 pacts

BELJING: China said it will provide the "necessary support" to Pakistan to tide over the present financial crisis, expand CPEC projects as the two countries signed 16 agreements on Saturday after talks between Prime Minister Imran Khan and his Chinese counterpart Li Keqiang to boost their "all-weather" strategic ties. Khan is in Beijing on his maiden visit to China as the two countries grapple to iron out differences over the multi-billion-dollar China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) and Islamabad approaching 'friendly nations' to avoid a tough IMF bailout package.

Li, who held a ceremonial welcome for Khan, said: "We have a high-level of political trust and close cooperation in all fields. Pakistan has always been regarded as a foreign policy priority by China."

Thanking Li, Khan said: "The relationship between the two countries has deepened since then because the CPEC in 2013 was just an idea. Now it is on the ground. And it has caught the imagination of the people of Pakistan". —Agencies
