WASHINGTON: Pranay Varada, a 14-year-old Indian-American student, has won the prestigious USD 50,000 National Geographic Bee competition, maintaining the dominance of the community in the contest. "I was absolutely sure I could win that challenge," Varada said soon after bagging the coveted competition, which for the past one decade has been dominated by Indian-Americans. "Having done this for such a long time and winning it now, it's just a feeling of satisfaction," Varada, an eighth grader from Texas, said. A runner up last year, Varada this time did not want to give any chance.

Pak govt rejects Pervez Musharraf's conditions for his high treason trial

AGENCIES
Islamabad

Pakistan has rejected former military ruler Pervez Musharraf's demands of military security and safe passage to Dubai to face his high treason trial, saying an "absconder" cannot give conditions and "dictate his prerequisites" to the court.

The federal government on Wednesday told a three-member special court that being an absconder for high treason, 73-year-old Musharraf cannot seek any relief until he surrenders before the court which is trying him in the high treason case.

"An absconder cannot dictate his prerequisites to the court and give conditions, that too his own subjective satisfaction, as to when he will appear and for how long," the government said in its response.

Musharraf filed an applica-

PERVEZ MUSHARRAF who was Pak President is declared wanted by a Pak court for failing to appear on several hearings.

THE FORMER president asked for security guarantee from Pakistan's Armed Forces which was rejected by Pakistan. Prosecutor Akram Shaikh said when Musharraf arrives in Pakistan, providing security will be the government's responsibility.

SHAIKH said there is no need for advance security or guarantee from the armed forces and Pervez Musharraf.

tion before the special court on May 5 in which he expressed willingness to face the trial under military protection. He also sought assurance from the court that he would be given safe passage back to Dubai.

The government, through its chief prosecutor Mohammad

Akram Sheikh, said, "The application has been filed only to prolong the conclusion of the trial," the Dawn reported.

"That similar applications requesting 'foolproof' security and citing medical and security reasons have previously been made in the other cases pending against the absconder accused but no other court allowed these requests," it said. However, the government said it was willing to provide "all due security" to Musharraf "as per his entitlement".

It also said that measures of effectiveness of the security could not be left to the whims of the absconding suspect, as in that case, security measures would never be found adequate.

The federal government said Musharraf's demands were delaying tactics and said the suspect's conduct showed he had no desire to appear in court.

The government's response also expressed doubts over the authenticity of the medical reports filed by Musharraf's counsel. "There is neither any independently verified evidence of the ailments and travel restrictions nor has any material been placed on record," it said. "The attestation by consulate general of Pakistan, Dubai is dated August 9, 2016, whereas the body of the vakaltama (power of attorney) has an overwritten date as April 30, 2017, which on the face of it shows that it is not an authentic document," the response said.

According to the reply, the court through its order dated July 19, 2016, declared Musharraf to be a proclaimed offender/absconder. Perpetual arrest warrants have been issued against him, after which proceedings to confiscate his properties have also been initiated.

The government asked the court to dismiss Musharraf's application seeking military security and safe passage to Dubai, and to take "all appropriate coercive measures to procure the attendance of absconding accused to complete the trial". The special court will resume proceedings in the high treason trial on May 19. -PTI

British PM makes poll pledge to clamp down on immigration

LONDON: Theresa May on Thursday unveiled her Conservative Party's election manifesto that makes cutting immigration from countries like India, a central poll pledge if her party wins the June 8 general election. The British prime minister set out plans to further tighten rules for skilled workers from outside the European Union (EU), which involves anyone employing a non-EU worker to be expected to pay 2,000 pounds for each worker every year. This amount doubles the "Skills Charge" of 1,000 pounds already in force. Non-EU migrants will also be made to pay more for using the state-run National Health Service (NHS).

Two police hurt in attack on LGBT rally in Ukraine

KIEV: Two Ukrainian policemen were hospitalised after they tried to disperse about 30 young men who attacked a rally by gay and transgender rights activists in the eastern city of Kharkiv, law enforcement officials said on Thursday. Video footage from the event released by Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty showed hooded hooligans burning an LGBT rainbow flag and attacking the event's participants as well as the police outside a government building. The Kharkiv police told the Interfax-Ukraine news agency that they arrested four of the assailants on Wednesday. They face up to five years in jail if convicted of using force against law enforcement officials.

'Islamists' stone couple to death in north Mali: Official

BAMAKO: An unmarried couple were stoned to death in public in northeast Mali by "Islamists", local officials said, the first such incident since jihadist groups were driven out of the region. Jihadists seized key northern cities in Mali in March 2012, and though they were driven out by a French-led military intervention in 2013, Islamist groups continue to make their presence felt with frequent attacks on domestic and foreign forces. "The Islamists dug two holes where they put the man and the woman who lived maritally without being married," said a local official. "They were stoned to death." The stoning happened in Taghilt on Tuesday, close to Aguelhok in the Kidal region, and the same source told AFP that members of the public were invited to take part.

US implements missile sanctions on Iran after nuke program review

AGENCIES
Washington

The US has said it will continue to waive certain economic sanctions on Iran's nuclear programme while simultaneously implementing a new set of sanctions related to the country's ballistic missile programme and monitoring its human rights abuses.

"As we continue to closely scrutinise Iran's commitment to the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA) and develop a comprehensive Iran policy, we will continue to hold Iran accountable for its human rights abuses with new actions," Stuart Jones, Acting Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs Ambassador, said on Wednesday.

It will implement a new set of sanctions on Iran's missile programme. "We urge our partners around the world to join us in calling out individuals and entities who violate international sanctions targeting Iran's human rights abuses," Jones said.

The Congress was told that the US continues to waive sanctions as required to continue implementing the US sanctions-lifting commitments in the JCPOA. -PTI

Ex-FBI director to lead Russia probe

AGENCIES
Washington

The Justice Department has appointed former FBI Director Robert Mueller as special counsel to oversee the federal probe into Russian meddling in the 2016 election, the media reported.

Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein appointed Mueller on Wednesday to the position, reports CNN.

Attorney General Jeff Sessions previously recused himself from any involvement in the Russia investigation which includes evidence of potential collusion between President Donald Trump's campaign associates and Russian officials, due to his role as a prominent campaign adviser and surrogate.

Mueller was appointed Federal Bureau of Investigation Director by former President George W. Bush in 2001 and served until 2013.

He will resign from his private law firm WilmerHale to avoid any conflicts of interest, the Justice Department said.

As special counsel, Mueller is "authorised to prosecute federal crimes arising from the investigation of these matters", according to the Justice Department order Rosenstein signed.

In a brief statement, Mueller said, "I accept this responsibility and will discharge it to the best of my ability", CNN reported. News of the special counsel announcement was closely held. The White House received a heads-up less than an hour before the news broke at 6 p.m. on Wednesday.

The rest of the House leadership and rank-and-file members were in the dark, but a Justice Department official did reach out directly to Speaker Paul Ryan shortly before the announcement to let him know of the special counsel appointment, according to a Republican official.

Trump was meeting with FBI director candidates when the White House was formally told that a special prosecutor had been named in the Russia investigation.

The White House counsel informed the President, reports CNN. "It's still sinking in," one administration official said, adding "We were told about it. Not asked about it."

In a statement on Wednesday, Trump said an investigation will confirm that "there was no collusion" between his campaign and Russia.

No politician ever treated more unfairly, says Trump

AGENCIES
Washington

US President Donald Trump on Thursday claimed that no politician in history has been treated as unfairly as him by the media.

Trump, who has been struggling under the weight of a series of controversies, insisted that he cannot let the critics get in the way of his dreams.

"Look at the way I've been treated lately, especially by the media. No politician in history - and I say this with great surety - has been treated worse or more unfairly," Trump said at the US Coast Guard Academy Commencement ceremony in New London Connecticut.

"I guess that's why we won. Adversity makes you stronger. Don't give in, don't back down, and never stop doing what you know is right," he told the cadets.

Trump said that he accomplished a tremendous amount in a very short time as President.

James Comey, the man who succeeded him as FBI Director. The official announcement of Comey's dismissal cited his handling of the investigation into Hillary Clinton's use of a private e-mail server during "Nothing worth doing ever, ever, ever came easy, and the more righteous your fight, the more opposition that you will face," he said, adding one needs to put his head down and "fight, fight, fight" and never give up.

Trump said he did not get elected to serve the Washington media or special interests. "I got elected to serve the forgotten men and women of our country, and that's what I'm doing," he stressed.

Trump was speaking amid reports that he asked sacked FBI Director James Comey to shut down the bureau's probe into former National Security Adviser Michael Flynn earlier this year.

Comey's firing as FBI director last week triggered a political firestorm in Washington. A small but growing number of Republican US lawmakers have called for an independent probe of possible collusion between President Trump's 2016 campaign and Russia. -PTI

Senators plan to question Rosenstein about Comey's firing when the deputy attorney general testifies on Thursday in a closed hearing.

2 Pak embassy staffers detained in Afghanistan

Islamabad

Two staffers of Pakistan's Kabul embassy were detained for hours by Afghanistan's intelligence officials, prompting strong protest from Islamabad, a media report said on Thursday.

The two men were in a stationery shop at a market when they were picked up by the sleuths of country's premier intelligence agency National Directorate of Security (NDS) and taken to one of their detention centres along with the embassy's official vehicle.

The staffers were identified as Hassan Khanzada, visa assistant at the embassy, and Syed Munir Shah, staff driver, the Dawn reported.

Khanzada was manhandled during the detention, it said, quoting a source.

The embassy approached the Afghan foreign ministry and sought immediate release of the two staffers.

Pakistan summoned Afghanistan's deputy head of mission Zardasht Shams yesterday to lodge protest over the detention.

The Afghan foreign ministry, reportedly after a bit of dilly-dallying, conceded that the two had been taken into custody by the NDS, the report said.

It happened amid latest efforts by the US-led coalition in Afghanistan to mend fences between Pakistan and Afghanistan. -PTI

Indian scientist Kulkarni wins Dan David Prize

AGENCIES
Tel Aviv

Indian scientist Shrinivas Kulkarni has won the prestigious Dan David prize for his contribution in the field of astronomy.

Kulkarni is a professor of astrophysics and planetary science at California Institute of Technology in Pasadena. He is a pioneer and leading figure in time-domain astrophysics across the electromagnetic spectrum who built and conducted the Palomar Transient Factory, a large-area survey of the night sky in search of variable and transient phenomena.

The survey has turned up thousands of stellar explosions, transforming our knowledge of the transient sky. The USD 1 million prize is a joint international enterprise endowed by the Dan David Foundation headquartered at Tel Aviv University. Kulkarni, with this honour, joins other prominent Indian laureates of the Dan David prize including author Amitav Ghosh, music conductor Zubin Mehta and renowned chemist CNR Rao.

The honour will be conferred at a festive awards ceremony here on May 21 in the presence of the laureates.

Three Dan David prizes of USD 1 million each are given every year in the categories of "Past", "Present" and "Future" to people around the world who have made outstanding contributions to humanity in the sciences, humanities, or through their work in civil society.

The recipients in the "Past" category are generally drawn from the field of history, archaeology, paleontology, biography, etc; the "Present" from arts, media, policy, economics, etc; and the "Future" from one of the exact or natural sciences.

The "Future" category this year is dedicated to astronomy and will be shared by Kulkarni, Andrej Udalski of the University of Warsaw and Neil Gehrels of NASA for their discoveries on time-domain astrophysics.

The prize, now in its 16th year, was established by the late Dan David, an international businessman and philanthropist who envisioned a project that would extend beyond traditional academic categorisations.

This vision is fulfilled by a "roving" formula that seeks to reward achievements in all fields of human endeavour rather than in a fixed set of categories. -PTI

Japanese held for reptile smuggling

AGENCIES
Jakarta

Indonesian authorities have arrested a Japanese man who conservationists say is a major player in the illegal wildlife trade for allegedly attempting to smuggle more than 250 reptiles out of the country.

The head of law enforcement at Jakarta's international airport, Ridwan Alaydrus, said Thursday that Katsuhide Naito was arrested after customs officers found 181 lizards, 65 snakes and seven turtles in his luggage.

He said the wildlife seized Tuesday included 12 different species, three of which are endangered.

Naito allegedly bought the haul from poachers in northern Sumatra and the Indonesian part of Borneo, Alaydrus said. It included green tree snakes, Borneo lizards and pig-nosed tur-les, which are protected under Indonesian law.

Naito was arrested before boarding a flight to Japan. His travel documents indicated he is a frequent visitor to Indonesia, holding Platinum Elite Plus status with the country's national airline, Garuda. Alaydrus said the man could be charged under Indonesia's animal quarantine law, which carries a penalty of up to three years in prison and a fine. -AP

During the New Fund Offer, the units of the scheme will be sold at the face value of ₹10/- per unit.

UTI Capital Protection Oriented Scheme - Series IX - II (1462 days) : is a close - ended capital protection oriented income fund with a plan tenure of 1462 days.

Investment Objective : The investment objective of the scheme is to endeavor to protect the capital by investing in high quality fixed income securities as the primary objective and generate capital appreciation by investing in equity and equity related instruments as secondary objective. However, there is no assurance that the investment objective of the Scheme will be realized and the Scheme does not assure or guarantee any returns.

The Scheme is "oriented towards protection of capital" and not "with guaranteed returns". Further, the orientation towards protection of the capital originates from the portfolio structure of the scheme and not from any bank guarantee, insurance cover etc.

Asset Allocation : Debt & Money Market Instruments - 70% to 100% Risk Profile Low to Medium, Equity & Equity-related instruments 0% to 30% Risk Profile: Medium to High.

The final Asset Allocation at the time of launch of the Plan would be as per the CRISIL rating letter. The Plan does not intend to invest in Securitized Debt (including Pass Through Certificates), Debt Derivatives, Repo/Reverse Repo in corporate debt securities, overseas/ foreign securities. Further, the Plan does not intend to engage in stock and securities lending and short selling or participate in credit default swap transactions.

Minimum Application Amount : Minimum amount of investment under Regular Sub Plan and Direct Sub Plan is ₹5,000/- and in multiples of ₹1/- thereafter without any upper limit.

Bench Mark : CRISIL MIP Blended Index

Load Structure : Entry Load: Not Applicable Exit Load: No Exit Load is applicable for the Plan. No redemption is permitted before maturity of the Plan, being a close ended Plan.

This product is suitable for investors who are seeking*:

UTI Capital Protection Oriented Scheme - Series IX - II (1462 Days)

- Capital Protection at Maturity and Capital Appreciation over medium term.
- Investment in Debt and Money Market Securities (70%-100%) and Equity and Equity related instruments (0% - 30%).

*Investors should consult their financial advisors if in doubt about whether the product is suitable for them.
